

EMERALD HONOR

2010 Camp Promotion and Service Award for Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Venturers
 Colorful "going green" emblems will be available for youth and adult leaders who assist in the promotion, maintenance, and development of Camp Robert Drake. The Illini Lodge Service Corps has adopted a special recognition known as the Emerald Honor for Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Venturers, and leaders that help improve Camp Drake grounds and facilities in 2010. By participating in three camp-related tasks, every youth and leader can earn a special Emerald Honor patch. To qualify, the applicant must participate in each of the three categories. Please have a member of the Illini Lodge Service Corps initial the completed tasks.

- 1) Attend a Camp Drake Tool Time Work Day
- 2) Participate in a unit led "summer camp promotional night" for youth and parents
- 3) Help provide service to Camp Drake through one of the selected options

Emerald Honor Application

Special Camp Drake patches can be earned by the youth and adult leaders. The individual must qualify by completing the following three tasks and submitting this application by August 30, 2010. The patch will be presented by Illini Lodge to recipients attending summer camps and other events in the summer.

Name of Applicant _____ Youth or Adult (circle one)

Unit Type & Number _____ City _____

<input type="checkbox"/>	The applicant must attend one of the three planned Camp Drake Tool Time events in the spring of 2010. The scheduled dates for the Tool Times are 3/20/10, 4/17/10, or 5/8/10. A Tool Time Work Day begins at 9:00 am and concludes with a brief appreciation ceremony at 3:00 pm
--------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Project(s) completed _____ Date of work day _____

<input type="checkbox"/>	The applicant must attend and support a "summer camping promotional night" for youth and parents hosted by a unit before Wednesday, April 30, 2010. This promotion program must be at least 30 minutes long and could be provided with the assistance of council or district groups, such as the Order of the Arrow or your district Camping Committee. The unit may conduct the promotion program on their own using their own promotion materials, but must meet the stated deadline.
--------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Date of Promotion _____ Attendance numbers: YOUTH _____ ADULTS _____

<input type="checkbox"/>	The applicant will provide additional Camp Drake service by completing one of these options
<input type="checkbox"/>	Recruit 5 or more of your unit members to attend a Tool Time Work Day at Camp Drake
<input type="checkbox"/>	Participate in an additional Camp Drake Service Project approved by the Illini Lodge Service Corps on any date by August 30, 2010.
<input type="checkbox"/>	OA members can attend the Spring Fellowship on the weekend of May 14 to 16, 2010
<input type="checkbox"/>	Participate in the Trail Tromp on March 27, 2010, and assist with path clearing, trash pick-up, brush removal, and trail repair

Please have a member of the Illini Lodge Service Corps initial the completed tasks.

These awards are purchased by Illini Lodge service Corps to encourage service to protect and preserve Camp Robert Drake